God's Restoration

Genesis 8: 1-22

But God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water subsided. <sup>2</sup> Also the fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained; <sup>3</sup> and the water receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of one hundred and fifty days the water decreased. <sup>4</sup> In the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup> The water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible. <sup>6</sup> Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made; <sup>7</sup> and he sent out a raven, and it flew here and there until the water was dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the water was abated from the face of the land; <sup>9</sup> but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark, for the water was on the surface of all the earth. Then he put out his hand and took her, and brought her into the ark to himself. <sup>10</sup> So he waited yet another seven days; and again he sent out the dove from the ark. <sup>11</sup> The dove came to him toward evening, and behold, in her beak was a freshly picked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water was abated from the earth. <sup>12</sup> Then he waited yet another seven days, and sent out the dove; but she did not return to him again. <sup>13</sup> Now it came about in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water was dried up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the ground was dried up. <sup>14</sup> In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. <sup>15</sup> Then God spoke to Noah, saying, <sup>16</sup> "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. <sup>17</sup> Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." <sup>18</sup> So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. <sup>19</sup> Every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out by their families from the ark. <sup>20</sup> Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup> The LORD smelled the soothing aroma; and the LORD said to Himself, "I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the intent of man's heart is evil from his youth; and I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done." <sup>22</sup> "While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

Discussion Questions

Genesis 8: 1-22

1. God REMEMBERED it says in verse 1 ... how does God remember our needs today?

2. Verses 15-16 show that God SPOKE to Noah and gave him things to do as part of God's redemption of the earth ... how does God speak to us today and what does He expect of us?

3. Verse 21 very interestingly shows that God "said to Himself" that He would never again curse the ground on account of man or destroy every living thing as He had done with the flood. This is a PROMISE or a covenant. What has God promised today to us who believe His Gospel?

4. Look at 1 Corinthians 15: 1-58 (the Resurrection Chapter). How do we see God remembering us in our need, speaking to us, and promising us eternal life in this chapter? Hint: look at verses 1-4; 20-26; and 50-58.
